

ICASP (Improvisation, Community, and Social Practice) and TCI (TransCanada Institute) present Canadian poet, George Elliott Clarke reading from his latest collection of poetry, Red. Following the reading there will be an interview with the poet conducted by PhD Student and ICASP researcher Paul Watkins and TCI Postdoctoral Fellow Katherine McLeod.

“Your bass sounds like a typewriter” A Reading and Interview with GEORGE ELLIOTT CLARKE

Accompanied by bassist, David Lee.

FRIDAY, APRIL 27TH, 2012
4PM to 6PM

TRANSCANADA INSTITUTE
9 University Avenue East
University of Guelph

A reception with snacks and drinks will follow with a meet-and-greet with the author.

FREE and Open to the Public

trañsCanãđa
— INSTITUTE —

 *Improvisation, Community,
and Social Practice*

UNIVERSITY of GUELPH

CHANGING LIVES
IMPROVING LIFE